

Investing in disaster preparedness, response and recovery

THURSDAY, MARCH 7, 2013

Panel discussion + social hour 6:30-9:30pm
32BJ SEIU - 25 West 18th Street
5th Floor Conference Room
(between 5th & 6th Aves) New York, NY

Trade unionists, community leaders and United Nations agency and national delegation representatives are invited to a special meeting to network and discuss critical disaster preparedness, response and recovery issues.

In the wake of Superstorm Sandy, this is an opportunity to share experiences, lessons learned and best practice proposals for solutions.

With speakers from:

- 32BJ SEIU
- District Council 37/AFSCME, Henry Garrido
- Public Services International, Rosa Pavanelli
- TWU Local 100
- UWUA Local 1-2, John Duffy
- ALIGN, Matt Ryan

Please RSVP to:

Mark.Langevin@world-psi.org

Jon Forster: 4unionnow@gmail.com

Join the discussion on how we can strengthen professional expertise, public services and community capacity for better disaster resilience.

Co-sponsors: 32BJ SEIU, DC37/AFSCME, Public Services International, The Worker Institute at Cornell