Commemoration of "Safety Day" on 18th July 2012

On behalf of the 20 million working women and men who are affiliated to Public Services International, I am sending a strong message of solidarity for your union's Safety Day on 18 July.

Over the years, PSI has been following your serious efforts to improve the health and safety for your members who are often exposed to high risks at work.

We wish you good luck with the promotion of the "Safer preventive culture". Your commitment to save lives and to reduce risks is an excellent example of the important role of trade unions.

Looking forward to our future cooperation, I send you my best wishes

Peter Waldorff
General Secretary
