PSI Vacancy: Project Coordinator for Social Dialogue and Gender-Based Violence (GBV)

Dear Colleagues,

PSI will launch two new projects in the Arab subregion:

- The PSI Social Dialogue project “Strategic planning for social dialogue opportunities for PSI trade unions in Lebanon and Jordan” is aiming at strengthening the capacity of trade unions to defend workers’ rights, and ensure access to quality public services for all.

- The PSI GBV project “Campaigning for the Ratification of C190 in the Middle East and North African Countries” is aiming at raising the awareness of PSI affiliates in Egypt and Tunisia on the importance of the ratification of C190, and at building their capacities in terms of campaigning, lobbying and advocating.

The Project Coordinator will be responsible for implementing these projects with affiliates and potential allies under the direction of the Acting Subregional Secretary for Arab Countries.

Knowledge of international labour standards, experience working with trade unions in the region, as well as of project management and campaigning are key requirements for this position.

The Coordinator’s duty station will be Beirut, Lebanon. S/he should expect to start as soon as possible, based on a fixed term contract until 31st December 2022, with possible extension beyond this date subject to funding continuity.

For further details, please see the job description for the position. Interested candidates are invited to:

- Produce a cover letter including motivation for the position, related skills and competences, based on the selection criteria listed in the job description, of no more than 1,000 words in English;
- Include 3 references from previous employers;
- Attach a Curriculum Vitae; and
- Send their application to af-recruitment@world-psi.org, subject “Project Coordinator-MENA” before 18 July 2021.

NB: Incomplete applications or applications received after the deadline will not be taken into consideration.

We encourage candidates to apply regardless of their gender, age, nationality, religion and sexual orientation. PSI welcomes in particular applications from PSI affiliates and staff.

Yours sincerely,

Rosa Pavanelli
General Secretary
