

PUBLIC SERVICES
INTERNATIONAL

PSI is looking for: Regional Secretary, Africa and Arab Countries

Public Services International is a Global Union Federation of more than 700 trade unions representing 30 million workers in 154 countries. We bring their voices to the UN, ILO, WHO and other regional and global organisations. We defend trade union and workers' rights and fight for universal access to quality public services.

PSI champions labour and human rights, advocates for social justice and promotes universal access to quality public services. PSI works with the United Nations system and in partnership with labour, civil society and other organisations. PSI has three Regional Hubs and offices in 15 countries globally.

We are looking for a Regional Secretary for Africa and Arab Countries, based in the Regional office (currently in Togo, but moving soon to Ghana).

The Regional Secretary will lead the regional team in developing plans and implementing the regional strategy to meet PSI's objectives, in a strong relationship with the region's affiliated unions along with driving a culture of continuous improvement in the areas of responsibility. The ideal candidate will have experience in an African and Arab trade union movement and/or public sector with Broad knowledge of the region's political issues preferably with a focus on public sector issues. The position would suit someone with Experience working at a leadership level in a trade union, civil society or affiliate-based organisation.

We provide equal employment opportunities to all employees and qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, colour, religion, gender, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, national origin, age, handicap, disability.

See full job description.

Applications should be sent by 12th of April to the following email: recruitment@world-psi.org indicating in the subject Regional Secretary AF.